President's Corner

By summer’s end, I will have logged over 16,000 miles traversing the country to attend several conventions and attending several outstanding performances. While Ohio experienced pleasant temperatures, I’ve experienced lots of rain in Oregon and a 104 degree temperature in Sacramento.

I learned so much during the June NFMC conference in Portland, Oregon. I can’t wait to share some of the wonderful ideas Newark to learn your incoming ideas, my mind- ity to keep play- the shut-ins, the goals of our or- sical performers. But most importantly, “Let Music Bring Peace and Harmony throughout the World”.

Consider a Gift to the OFMC Foundation

A great way to honor a deceased member of your club, a family member, a friend, or a special person in your life is to make a contribution to The Foundation for the Advancement of Music. Your contribution increases the funds so that enough income from investments can be generated to fund OFMC’s many awards.

Detach and mail or make your own Foundation Gift Form to Ron Marenchin at 1415 Cottage Street, Ashland, OH 44805. Check payable to OFMC, Notification cards will be sent to donor and bereaved family.

OFMC 2014 CONVENTION

Mark your calendars for the 2014 OFMC Convention scheduled for October 9, 10, 11, 2014 at the DoubleTree Hotel by Hilton in beautiful downtown Newark, Ohio. Newark has been chosen because of its centralized location near the middle of the state. Travel time is convenient no matter where you live in Ohio. The hotel was newly renovated in 2012, and its facilities are ideal for the events being planned for our convention. The hotel facilities include spacious meeting rooms, a restaurant for “on your own” meal and very inviting cuisine for group luncheons, breakfasts, and the banquet. There is very convenient free parking. The convention committee is busy with the event planning. Sleeping rooms are very inviting and newly decorated and furnished. More news will be coming to you as plans are developed. You can expect some significant innovations in the sessions, so be sure to put the dates on your calendar.

Purdy’s favorite composers are Monteverdi and Bruckner. An accidental encounter with a beat-up recording of Mozart’s “Don Giovanni” at the age of eight changed Purdy’s direction from law school or the priesthood to one of classical music and public

The 2013 NFMC Young Artist Winner, pianist Olga Krayterman will perform in concert on Friday, October 10 at the OFMC State Convention. Don’t miss it!

Olga is a Belarusian-born American pianist and an accomplished performer of solo and chamber repertoire. She has won numerous national and international competition prizes and at 17 made her orchestral debut with the South Carolina Philharmonic playing Beethoven’s 3rd Piano Concerto.

Olga began her studies at the Cincinnati Conservatory and received her Bachelor and Master of Music degrees from the Eastman School of Music. She is presently completing her Doctorate in Piano Performance and Literature at Eastman where she has been a teaching assistant since 2008. She has also taught at the Eastman Community Music School since 2011. She is a delightful, gifted and lovely young musician, and we are proud to present her at our convention. Her program will include music by Griffes, CPE Bach, Scriabin, Chopin and Rachmaninoff.

She will present a Master Class with selected OFMC Juniors at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, October 11 as part of Junior Day at the state convention. (See convention schedule) You won’t want to miss this opportunity to observe, learn and have dialogue with Olga as she works with our talented students.

EDITOR’S NOTE
I’m speaking as the new editor of the OFMC Newsletter. As you all know, when his wife, Helen Dill died, Richard Dill (the former newsletter editor) said that he wanted to step down from his position because he was planning to move to the Carolinas to be near his children. I cannot hope to put together a newsletter as elegant and well-informed as Richard Dill’s, so I hope you’ll all be patient with me while I learn to do this job. Dick has been wonderfully helpful in this, and he’s still doing the directory, I believe, as well as updating mailing lists, etc. My only experience has been with Junior Festivals, and I have a lot to learn about the Senior members, etc. But I promise to try my best.

This first newsletter has been difficult because there is so much material about the state convention that needs to be included. I do hope the winter issue will be easier. And speaking of the winter issue, if any of you want something in it, please get it to me by November 15, 2014. Plan ahead. I do appreciate your patience and understanding. I also greatly appreciate the patience and help of my husband, Mack, who has tirelessly helped me. You’re all working with a really inexperienced newsletter editor here.

Chautauqua Magic!

The 70th NFMC North East Region Federation weekend at the Chautauqua Institution was held July 12-13. The weather was grand, as was the whole “Chautauqua Experience.” Twenty seven NFMC members attended from 5 NE Region states. VP Toni Winter presided over the morning business session.

- Reports were given by NFMC and Regional Chairmen. Ohio’s noteworthy involvement in all areas was reported. (e.g. Opera, Poetry, National Music Week, etc.) It was determined that Ohio, as the host state, will receive $5000 to “start up” the National Convention in 2017. This will be repaid from the profits of the Convention.

- Many expressed sympathy at the loss of Helen Dill as our president. The names of Ohio’s other losses were read.

- Jeannine Morris ran unopposed for the VP of the NE Region. Confirmation will be decided by the NFMC Board.

- Saturday afternoon we heard the exceptionally talented NFMC award winners. Zachary Stump, clarinet, from the Cincinnati Conservatory received the Ohio Award.

- Saturday evening we were treated to the Chautauqua Symphony and the Opera Dept. with Opera highlights.

- The Sunday ecumenical worship service in the huge amphitheater is always special, featuring a huge organ, 100 voice choir and wonderful speaker.

- The NFMC 2013 Young Artist Winner in voice, Mark Gardner, performed a beautiful recital followed by an outdoor reception.

- The service of Sacred Song and Jazz finished our weekend.

- Our NFMC Chautauqua weekend was a feast of good food, some business, wonderful music, relaxation and the fun of meeting other music lovers in our NE Region. Reported by Donna Gerber

The Trumbull String Ensemble performed at the Farmers’ Market in Warren, Ohio on July 15, 2014. They performed familiar songs, fiddle tunes, well known hymns, and classical music for a two hour program. All performers are also members of the Treble Clef Music Club, a junior club in the Ohio Federation of Music Clubs, and they wore T-shirts which boldly displayed the treble clef sign for the occasion.

Editor’s Note

In Richard Dill’s spring issue of the newsletter, he asked for suggestions of prominent Ohio musicians to go in our future newsletters. I think it is a wonderful idea, and for my first issue, my initial choice involves the distinguished Griebling/Haigh family. They have been prominent in my NE Ohio District for many years. The story featured below was written by Stephen and Mary Ann Griebling, with their daughters, Karen and Margi Griebling-Haigh. The photograph to the right is of a performance that took place August 12, 2014, and the young woman in the photo is Gabrielle Haigh, granddaughter and student of Mary Ann, who was a Junior Festival entrant in many events from kindergarten in 1998 through high school, achieving many points and many cups. This is a great example of the benefits of performing from a very young age in OFMC Junior Festivals.

The Alliance Music Study Club celebrated their centennial (1914-2014) with their annual banquet June 2 in the Georgian Room at the Alliance Woman's Club where AMSC met many years ago. In the fall of 1914, twelve members had gathered for singing under the direction of Miss Edythe Louise Pratt, who had a voice studio and was an instructor at Mount Union College Conservatory. In April 1921, AMSC joined OFMC and NFMC,

At the banquet, displays were available: old Yearbooks, special programs of the Chorale group, certificates from NFMC, minutes, pictures, etc. Everyone present received a scroll listing past presidents and past scholarship winners as well as a napkin embroidered in AMSC colors of gold and blue with the word "music" forming a note. Correspondences were read congratulating AMSC. Also, sixteen new members were welcomed at the banquet. A performance was presented by Adam Davis, our 2014 Scholarship winner, who will attend the University of Mount Union in Musical Theater.
