Let Music Bring Peace and Harmony throughout the World

President's Corner

What a busy summer! I attended the NFMC Conference in Milwaukee in June. I had the pleasure of meeting other state presidents. OFMC problems are small compared to the problems faced by other states. In July, I attended the regional meeting in Chautauqua, NY, followed by the finance meeting in Ashland. I also had much rest (mind you) as was ordered by my neurologist. The one thing I found out about myself is that I really did not know what rest really means. until I was told, no reading, no TV, no computer.... just sleep! Tell that to a person who is used to being busy!

See you at our state convention in Ashland on October 18-20! It is an event that I always look forward to. The drive has always been very enjoyable for me because I love seeing the beautiful fall colors. I am really looking forward to hearing our 2017 Young Artist winner Kevin Apat, who will be performing on the beautiful Steinway 9-foot concert grand piano in the new Ashland HS auditorium. He will also give a master class for the juniors the next morning. And the excitement during Juniors Day competition is second to none. Please see convention Registration and schedule on pages 2 and 3. Please come and enjoy the music, presentations and networking. This convention will be my last while being your president.

This issue is my last newsletter before my term as president expires in October. There were plenty of ups and downs, trials and tribulations, sweat and tears, oh yes, frustrations with the computer not cooperating, and much to learn and to cheer about. Overall, a truly rewarding four and a half years of life experience for me. I enjoyed meeting many Federation people, locally, at state meetings and national meetings. Of course, I want to continue my friendship with the ones I have come to love. I treasure your friendships. I cannot express enough, my gratitude to the dedicated and hard-working Federation members who served during my tenure as president. Thank you so much for all you do and for all your support.

NFMC 1st Vice President Frances Nelson was the honored guest during the Northeast Regional meeting at Chautauqua Suites on July 14. Mrs. Nelson spoke about her family, her long-time relationship (since her childhood years) with NFMC and her role as the 1st Vice President of the National Federation of Music Clubs. After the luncheon, she was escorted by Northeast region Vice President Jeannine Morris and her husband Karl to tour the Chautauqua Institution and attended the NFMC Northeast regional winner's recital, YA vocal artist Andre Chiang recital and Chautauqua Symphony Orchestra's performance at the Amphitheater.

National Winners

A big congratulations goes to the 2018 NFMC Martha Marks Mack Junior vocal competition, second place winner Olivia Ruege of Galena, Ohio. Olivia just finished 11th grade at Worthington Christian High School. Olivia received an award of $500. Olivia had performed with the Columbus Children's Theater, the Westerville Civic Theater as well as with her High School Choir. She enjoys writing sacred music during her free time. She is a student of Karen Rugg-Klapheke. I hope Olivia competes again next year as the monetary award has doubled.

12-year old Riley Sharp is the winner of the NFMC Ballet competition for her age category. She has been dancing since she was 4. She studies ballet, modern, contemporary, and music theatre dance. Riley danced the lead role of "Clara" in the Nutcracker Ballet twice, and most recently danced the role of "Snow White" in the Snow-White Ballet, along with professional Russian dancer Sergey Pakharev as Prince Charming. Riley also plays the harp and sings. She uses her musical talents at churches, community events, and theaters (where she has had lead roles in several musicals). She was recently featured in the "Student Corner" in the May/June edition of Cincinnati's Center Stage Dance Magazine. Riley will be featured as a dance performer at the Friday afternoon Foundation Concert at the convention. Riley plans to become a professional dancer someday.

Congratulations and best wishes to Riley on her aspiration to become a professional dancer.

Greetings from the new Junior Composition Chairman Christina Sedaras

I am so excited to serve as the new Donald Babcock Junior Composition competition. Thank you to Susan Carlock for her many years of service and for helping train me for this position. Composition is very close to my heart because I grew up with a sister, Sabrina Pena Young who is an Avant Garde composer.

I hope that your students are having a wonderful time exploring sounds with you and writing them down to share with others. Having a deadline to work towards is a great way to get students started and keep them motivated with their composing endeavors. The OFMC offers the Donald Babcock Junior Composition Awards. The deadline for turning in your composition entry is January 15, 2019. The application form can be downloaded from the OFMC website using this link: <http://ofmc.org/competitions-awards/>.

Attention all District Festival Chairmen:

The Festival Chairs meeting will begin at 9:15 A.M. on Saturday, October 20 at the Trinity Lutheran Church. There will be very important information and decisions from NPMC that you must come and learn about. Please bring your bin. If you cannot attend, please designate someone to pick up your festival materials. We will not ship your materials.
