

President's Prelude

As I write this I'm listening to the wind blowing outside and I'm reminded of John Rutter's choral piece Blow, Blow Thou Wintry Wind. Surely winter will end soon and we can get under way with spring. And with spring comes Festivals, competitions and, of course, our District Meetings. What a great way for us to come together and hear what other clubs are doing. We need more involvement of our members and I encourage you to come, bring a member with you, and learn more about OFMC, share ideas, renew friendships, and meet new friends. OFMC has so much to be proud of but we must continue to go forward-our young musicians are counting on us. My challenge to you is ask not what OFMC can do for you ,but what YOU can do for OFMC. Volunteer, volunteer!!!

This is our first time e-mailing the newsletter. I'm sure everything won't be perfect-it will take a few times to get the "bugs" out. We ask for your patience and co-operation as we get closer to completing this enormous endeavor. We set deadline dates for submitting newsletter material to us and we ask that you adhere to these deadlines. Mark these on your calendar, please.

Good luck to all involved in festival and have a wonderful Easter. Experience the spiritual nourishment of the season. Feel the passion and strength from the wonderful music. I look forward to seeing you at the District meetings.

CONSIDER A GIFT TO THE OFMC FOUNDATION

A great way to honor a deceased member of your club, a family member, a friend, or a special person in your life is to make a contribution to The Foundation for the Advancement of Music. Your contribution increases the funds so that enough income from investments can be generated to fund OFMC's many awards.

Detach and mail or make your own Foundation Gift Form to Ron Marenchin at 1415 Cottage Street, Ashland, OH 44805-1224. Phone: 419/651-3747, Email: ronmarenchin@ohio.net

BLACK HISTORY MONTH OFMC HONORS KATHLEEN BATTLE

Kathleen Battle has made immeasurable contributions as an ambassador for classical music, performing for Presidents and dignitaries the world over. Her accomplishments via television, operas, concerts, recordings, talk shows, and numerous personal appearances attract diverse new audiences.

Miss Battle is a native of Portsmouth, Ohio where she was the youngest of a family of eleven children. She began singing in her church as well as school, earned both her Bachelors and Masters Degrees from Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music.

In 1975, OFMC assisted Miss Battle by paying her expenses to Washington, D.C. to audition in the NFM Young Artist Auditions. Naturally, OFMC is very proud to have been instrumental in launching her career.

For more information go to Miss Battle's website at www.kathleenbattle.com.

DO YOU HAVE A SUGGESTION?

We plan to feature a prominent Ohio musician in each issue of our newsletter. Do you have a suggestion for someone we might feature? Please let the Editor know of your favorite Ohio musician and include a brief bio.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION TO THE "VETERANS" OF OFMC

This word of thanks was prompted by a note from Jeannine and Karl Morris requesting that a word of appreciation be included in the newsletter to thank OFMC for the Citation that was recently presented to them for their myriad of contributions to OFMC over many years of dedicated service. Both of the Morris's are more than deserving of the Citation.

The Editor hastens to add that there are numerous OFMC members, both past and present who also need more than just a "Thank You" for their service and dedication to OFMC. These individuals are a vital source of information and knowledge about OFMC and NFMC and also examples of which we should all be appreciative because of the foundations and accomplishments they have made.

NFMC STILLMAN-KELLY AWARD

Donna Gerber, Chairman

There were two very talented entrants in the Stillman-Kelly Competition completed on February 13th. Both young men displayed outstanding talent. Second place went to Spencer Sharp, a violinist from Morrow. Spencer is a home schooled 9th grader and a member of the OFMC Junior Club, Sharp Studios.

He has performed in China, South Korea, Salzburg as well as the US. He made his debut at Carnegie Hall performing in Weill Recital Hall.

The NFMC Competition was won by a seventeen year old pianist, Jiakung Feng, student of Nancy Bachus, member of the Tuesday Musical Association, Akron.

Jiakung is an honor student and outstanding young pianist. He was first place winner in the Middle East District Buckeye Piano Competition in 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011 and also represented the State of Ohio in the five-state Regional MTNA

Competition in 2010. In 2009, Jiakung was the first place winner in the Marilyn Walters Young Musicians Competition for the State of Ohio. In 2011, he was the winner of OMTA State Buckeye Piano Competition, high school division, winner of the Solon Philharmonic Young Artist Concerto Competition and the winner of CPEA (Chinese Professional and Entrepreneurs Association.) Piano Competition. He has had numerous superior ratings for piano solos in the OMEA Competitions and Junior Festivals.

Jiakung has performed in master classes for Spencer Meyer, Nelita True, Joela Jones, Dr. David Breitman, Dr. Donna Lee, Dr. Jerry Wong, and Dr. Ratko Delorko.

He attended the Young Artist's Piano Camp in Duluth, Minnesota and the Kent State Summer Piano Institute for three years, performing at Reinberger Hall at Severance Hall in Cleveland each year.

A senior at Hudson High School, he has also played violin in the Hudson High School Orchestra and Akron Youth Symphony.

NFMC STUDENT COLLEGIATE AUDITIONS

OFMC has two entrants in the NFMC Student/Collegiate Auditions this year.

A voice student at Oberlin Conservatory entering the auditions is Alexis Cole Aime. Alexis performed at the OFMC Convention.

The second entrant is Elizabeth Rice, cello student at The College-Conservatory of Music of Cincinnati.

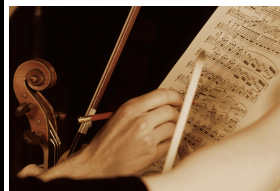

OFMC extends best wishes for success in this upcoming event.

It has been several years since OfMC has had any students participating in the NFMC Auditions.

2013 ADULT COMPOSER CONTEST

Ruth Mullin, Chairman

There were three contestants for the 2013 Adult Composer Contest which was adjudicated by Todd Baldosser of Newark; Jim Rengert of Newark; and Meredith Needham of Granville.

First place winner of $600.00 was Peggy Elliott of Lisbon. Peggy's composition was titled "October Waltz" for piano.

Second place winner of $450.00 was Sally Yocum of Columbus. Her composition was for voice and piano and was titled "Gone".

Janet Sima won third place award of $300.00 for her piano composition titled "Magical Bells".

OFMC congratulates the winners and wishes them continued success in their future compositional endeavors.

LANCASTER CLUB CELEBRATES 25 YEARS

Lancaster Music Club celebrated its 25th year by presenting a free concert on February 3rd at the First Presbyterian Church in Lancaster.

The event was open to the public and included a variety of performers and various musical styles. There was something to appeal to everyone.

The theme of the performance was "Mostly American Music" and included performers by professional vocalists and instrumentalists, members of Lancaster-Fairfield Youth Choir and the host church's Celebration Ringers handbell choir.

Performers were Esther Dorsey, Bill Dempsey accompanied by his wife; Bev Sater, Paul Young, Lisa Jelle, Jodi VanDyke, Gail Lehto, Joey Skoch, Beverly Carroll, Holly Oberle, Nick Ross, Brandon Howard, Youmee Kim, Tianshu Wang, Kaitlin Ryckman, Abhik Mazumber, and Danny Bauer.

Marjorie Seeley, 35 year piano teacher and member of Lancaster Music Club was quoted saying, "I like to promote the work of American composers" which is a primary goal of the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Congratulations to Lancaster Music Club for its 25th anniversary and OFMC wishes many more years of supporting and promoting music, especially American music.

INTO THE 21ST CENTURY

This issue is our first attempt at sending the Newsletter by email. It has been a challenge to develop the extensive contact list to accomplish this feat. Many emails had to be sent to confirm the Senior Club to which each member belongs. Please let the Editor know if we have you in the wrong club. Those without email will receive a hard copy in the postal mail as in the past.

The Editor hopes you enjoy having the Newsletter in color.
